

Proud history. Secure future.

In the last few days, the world's financial markets have experienced unprecedented volatility. Financial institutions and indeed countries the world over have been impacted.

At Citi, we have an almost 200 year history of leadership throughout the world and its markets. Today, we reassure our 200 million customers in more than 100 countries that we have built our company to weather these tough times.

Citi was among the first to attract new capital and now we are one of the best capitalised banks in the world. Our operating income continues to be strong and our unparalleled access to funding across the globe provides us with extraordinary levels of liquidity.

Our unique attributes of geographic and business diversity, together with our exceptionally talented and committed employees, are your promise of enduring excellence.

Driving your success is what drives us. That's why Citi never sleeps.

Citi never sleeps
